Jeff Merry Promoted to Senior Vice President at Volunteer Corporate Credit Union

05/12/10

NASHVILLE – Volunteer Corporate Credit Union (VolCorp) is pleased to announce the promotion of Jeff Merry to Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer. His responsibilities include investments, accounting, credit, compliance, and asset liability management (ALM) services. He also oversees the Corporate's own liquidity and investment strategies in addition to serving on its ALCO, Business Continuity Planning, IT Steering, and Supervisory Committees.

Jeff served as Vice President/CFO for the previous two years and in his previous tenure with VolCorp (2004 – 2006) held the position of Chief Investment Officer managing the investment portfolios on behalf of the Corporate with regards to yield and interest rate exposure. Jeff also has industry experience as a Director of Liquidity Solutions which led to Director of Member Solutions. Prior to joining the Credit Union Network, Jeff was a Senior Financial Consultant at Quick & Reilly, as well as an Options Specialist at JC Bradford.

Jeff graduated Summa Cum Laude from Belmont University, with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with an emphasis in Finance. He later returned to Belmont as an adjunct professor teaching Investment Portfolio Management, Corporate Finance, and a mini MBA Finance Module.

Volunteer Corporate Credit Union (VolCorp) is a not-for-profit financial cooperative that serves natural person credit unions nationally. Guided by a volunteer board of directors, VolCorp was organized for the express purpose of providing low-cost financial services and competitive investment and lending rates to our member/owners.
